RE: Licensing Report for 2006-2007 School Year

Each year, the Division of Professional Standards releases a report that indicates the number of emergency permits and transition to teaching permits issued for the recently completed school year. Beginning with the 2006-2007 report, the DPS has expanded the data released in this report to include the following number of Initial, Proficient, and Accomplished Practitioner Licenses issued per college, university or state, content area, and the number of substitute permits issued per school corporation. Even though this is the first year for the inclusion of these licenses in the data, we have included data for 2005-2006 as well. The data includes only information on Rules 2002 licenses. The intent is to include this data each year in the future.

The table below lists the number of Initial Practitioner (IP), Proficient Practitioner (PP), Accomplished Practitioner (AP) licenses, and Emergency Permits issued by school setting:

School Setting	Number of IP Licenses Issued	Number of PP Licenses Issued	Number of AP Licenses Issued	Number of EP's Issued
All Schools	1274	458	139	660
High School	1786	236	132	407

				456 *
Total	10,647	1,998	760	1,857
